

POLICY STATEMENTS OF RTO/ERO DISTRICT 34

LUNCHEON COSTS

The cost per member at each luncheon will be set on a cost recovery basis. Non-members attending as guests will pay the same rate as members. Any member who brings a potential member as guest is entitled to a free luncheon once that guest is confirmed as a member of District 34.

PRAYER AT LUNCHEONS

Any prayer used at luncheons will be non-denominational and inclusive in order to be sensitive to the diverse beliefs of the membership.

ORGANIZERS OF EVENTS

Members who organize events may attend that event at no cost. (a maximum of 2 organizers per event).

DISTRICT 34 SENATORS

The Senators for District 34, as appointed by the Executive, shall be the President and the First Vice-President or their designates. District 34 will, whenever possible, and budget allowing, send two observers appointed by the Executive to each Senate.

ADVERTISING IN THE 34th STORY

Free advertising in the newsletter will be allowed providing that it is for the benefit of the members of District 34. It should provide them with a special benefit such as a free or discounted price for a product or service. Excluded would be health benefits or any plan already provided by RTO Provincial. The editor of the newsletter, in consultation with the President, will judge the suitability of all submitted ads against these criteria.

Classified ads are for the information of our members and do not imply endorsement by RTE/ERO District 34.

EXECUTIVE EXPENSES

District 34 will pay the expenses of members of the Executive, members of ad hoc committees and any additional members authorized to perform duties on behalf of District 34. With the exception of the President, ordinary expenses associated with the two annual luncheon membership meetings (i.e. food and mileage) are not included.

HONORARIA

Honoraria costs for speakers and/or entertainment at luncheons can be up to $250. Any costs beyond this amount must be approved by the Executive.

HONORARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP

The Executive of District 34, on behalf of the membership, may bestow a long-serving former executive member with an Honorary Life Membership. This member would be recognized for outstanding and distinguished service to the District. The award would be made at the Annual General meeting of the District. The recipient of this award could then attend, along with a guest, all District 34 events at no cost.

HONORARY LIFE MEMBER: JOHN KIPPEN, MAY 2003.

GOODWILL REMEMBRANCES AND EXPENSES

The costs related to such things as cards, flowers, donations, e-mail deliveries, or any other out-of-pocket- expenses will be paid from the annual budget of the District. The Executive will deal with extraordinary expenses exceeding $75. (2005)

Special remembrances will be sent to members who have reached the age of 100. Birthday cards will be sent annually to members who have reached their ninetieth year. (2006)

EXECUTIVE BOARD ATTENDANCE

All executive members are expected to attend all Executive meetings. However, exceptional circumstances may necessitate absence. The absent member needs to notify the President of the situation. After absences at 3 consecutive meetings and following discussion with the President, the Executive may ask the member to resign from his/her position.

REQUESTS FOR PERMISSION TO SPEAK AT DISTRICT 34 EVENTS

- (A) Any request received from a person to speak at a District 34 function regarding the gathering of contributions or the need for personnel for some cause other than that of District 34 or RTO/ERO will be denied.

(B) This same policy will apply to the publishing of requests for funds for a cause other than District 34 or RTO/ERO in the District newsletter. (December 2006)

EXTERNAL AFFILIATE FEES

The fees for External Affiliate members shall be $15.00 per year. This fee shall be reviewed from time to time by the Executive to ensure that publication and mailing costs for the newsletter are being met. (2006)

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS

Any member of the District 34 executive or any committee chairperson may request that an electronic communication containing an issue relevant to their portfolio be sent to the membership by the Email communications representative.

Any request for an electronic communication made by anyone other than an executive member or committee chairperson must be approved by the President or First Vice-President.

Any electronic communication must fall within the parameters of usual District 34 business and be in the best interests of the members who would receive it. (Adopted : December 2008)

PROCEDURES OF THE EXECUTIVE OF DISTRICT 34
